STATE GUIDELINES FOR THE CONSERVATION COST-SHARE PROGRAM

SOIL HEALTH INITIATIVE
PROGRAM YEAR 21

Program Year Begins: August 19, 2019
Program Year Ends: March 31, 2021

Allocation Period Begins: August 19, 2019
Allocation Period Ends: March 31, 2020

Oklahoma Conservation Commission in cooperation with Oklahoma's 84 Conservation Districts

Approved by the Conservation Commission on, _____, 2019.

I GENERAL

The Conservation Cost-Share Program Soil Health Initiative (SHI) will focus on the natural resource concerns of:

- soil erosion caused by wind and water due to poor land practices
- unprotected soils and decreased infiltration
- soil health degradation caused by a loss of organic matter
- erosion and compaction due to poor land management practices
- water quality degradation due to excess nutrients and sediments.

Conservation district participation in the SHI is voluntary. Districts that choose to participate shall work together based on the 21 Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) teams (see attached). Conservation districts within each team shall establish a Soil Health Initiative Work Group (SHIWG) made up of conservation district directors and staff. Working with your team's district conservationist a NRCS technical representative will be selected to work with the SHIWG.

The Conservation Commission herein establishes the complete list and description of the SHI policies and conservation practices approved for use by conservation districts during Program Year 21. See Section II for the approved list of conservation practices with their respective cost-share rates. State cost-share average costs (unit cost) are based on Oklahoma NRCS data.

Any exceptions from these established SHI policies and guidelines shall be approved by the Conservation Commission.

II ALLOCATION OF FUNDS

A. Soil Health Initiative

The Conservation Commission allocates $1,008,000 of FY 2019 appropriations to the Conservation Cost-Share Fund for the purposes of providing cost-share payments to eligible participants for implementing approved soil health cost-share conservation practices.

B. Conservation District Allocation

The amount of funds allocated to each conservation district from the FY 2019 appropriation for the Soil Health Initiative Program Year 21 is $12,000. These funds will be available to conservation districts on August 19, 2019. Allocations for conservation districts that choose not to participate will be returned to the Conservation Commission Cost-Share Fund.

III POLICIES

A. Soil Health Initiative Work Group (SHIWG)

Each participating conservation district board must designate a SHIWG member that is authorized to make decisions on behalf of the conservation district. The work group member can be a conservation district board member or a conservation district employee. The primary duties of a SHIWG member is to vote the interest of their conservation district board and report monthly on SHIWG activities. Conservation district board members participating in the SHI are not eligible to be a member of the SHIWG.

The SHIWG shall work with the NRCS team district conservationist to designate a work group technical representative. The designated technical representative will assist in developing conservation plans and determining the need for conservation practices. The representative will also be responsible for design and layout of approved conservation practices, determining compliance with approved standards and specifications, and certifying conservation practice quantities and completion of conservation practices.

Members of the SHIWG shall select a work group leader and recorder. The leader will be responsible for conducting SHIWG meetings and communications. The recorder will be responsible for recording the minutes of SHIWG meeting.

B. Allocation Period

The allocation period shall start August 19, 2019 and end March 31, 2020. Any funds allocated to conservation districts and not obligated during the allocation period for Program Year 21 will be released by the conservation district and made available for reallocation by the Conservation Commission. Funds become obligated to a participant after approval of the application by the SHIWG and a performance agreement has been signed and dated by the conservation district board and the participant.

C. Conservation Practices

Each SHIWG may select any of the approved cost-share conservation practices within the SHI for inclusion in their guidelines. The selection should be based on practices that will best address the SHI's natural resource concerns. Cost-share practices shall be implemented according to NRCS standards and specifications.

D. Average Costs

State average cost (unit cost) for these practices is based on Oklahoma NRCS data. In order for a variance to be considered the request must be in writing and accompanied by supporting data compiled by the SHIWG. The variance rate must be approved by the Conservation Commission prior to the SHIWG's approval of applications and performance agreements being signed.

E. Cost-Share Payments

The minimum cost-share payment amount that shall be made to any participant from these funds is $100. The maximum cost-share payment amount that shall be made to any participant from these funds is $5,000.

F. Cost-Share Rate

The Conservation Commission establishes a cost-share rate of 85% for SHI practices.

G. Eligibility

Applicants for the SHI must be a conservation district cooperator with a conservation plan. Applicants approved in Program Year 20 cannot be approved for the same conservation practice on the same property in Program Year 21.

Conservation Commissioners, Conservation Commission staff, conservation district employees or the spouses of any of these people shall not be eligible to participate in the SHI.

Conservation district directors are eligible to participate in SHI. Due to the limited amount of funds available for Program Year 21 individual directors should give careful consideration to public perception when making their decision to participate in the Program. If the local board votes to allow board members to apply for Program Year 21 the guidelines below will be followed.

1. Individual conservation district board members applying cannot discuss any element of the Cost-Share Program including but not limited to practices, rates, average costs, selection criteria, application approval/disapprovals, cost-share payments, and extensions.
2. Individual conservation district board members applying for the Cost-Share Program must abstain from voting on all elements of the Program.
3. Individual conservation district board members cannot use their position as a conservation district board member to improve or elevate their individual chances of becoming a successful applicant.

H. Agreements

All Program Year 21 performance agreements must be signed and dated by the SHIWG member that represents the participant's home conservation district on or before March 31, 2020. All Program Year 21 performance agreements must be completed and the check in the hand of the participant on or before March 31, 2021. Installation of conservation practices cannot begin until an effective performance agreement is in place. A performance agreement becomes effective on the last date of signature. Each participant should have only one performance agreement.

Each participant is required to sign a maintenance agreement. Completion of the maintenance agreement and signature of the participant are required prior to the disbursement of the cost-share payment.

IV APPROVED CONSERVATION PRACTICES

Contained in this section is a list of all conservation practice's approved for use in the Program Year 21. The SHIWG shall only use conservation practices listed here unless a special request is approved by the Conservation Commission. In order for a conservation practice special request to be considered the request must be in writing and accompanied by supporting documentation. The special request must be approved by the Conservation Commission prior to the SHIWG's approval of applications and performance agreements being signed.

State average cost (unit cost) for these practices is based on Oklahoma NRCS data. In order for a variance to be considered the request must be in writing and accompanied by supporting data compiled by the conservation district. The variance rate must be approved by the Conservation Commission prior to performance agreements being signed.

RE: Oklahoma Association of Conservation Districts Report for the Oklahoma Conservation Commission August 1, 2019

Dear Commissioners,

The month of July has been productive for the Association. Most notably, we were happy to assist the National Association of Conservation Districts by hosting the South Central Region Meeting July 21-23rd in Thackerville, OK. There were 122 registrants for the meeting. The 2.5 day event had many speakers on important programs and projects in Oklahoma including pollinator habitat, soil health, and water quality. There was also an excellent half day tour that culminated with dinner at the Chickasaw Cultural Center with guest speaker, Governor Bill Anoatubby. Thank you to the Commission and partners that all pitched in to make the meeting a success for Oklahoma.

We are very excited that we will begin receiving funds from the Nature Conservancy for the pollinator project. The Association has been notified that $50,000 is available for Quarter 3 of 2019. It is our intent to use these funds to purchase no-till drills for districts to use. We hope this is just the first part of the total funding that will be available through this partnership. The Association is grateful for the Commission's assistance and expertise as we develop this program.

The Association was glad to work with the Commission on the submission of a Conservation Innovation Grant entitled "The Illinois River Watershed Poultry Producer Project" that focuses on improving water quality in Eastern Oklahoma.

The Association is currently working with the Commission on submitting a grant on August 16th to the Nature Conservancy for the Soil Health Citizen Scientist project.

For interim studies with the legislature, there are four that might be of interest that we are monitoring for any potential impacts on conservation districts including one on Rep. Lonnie Sims study on the historic flooding that happened in May and Senator Matthews study on urban agriculture.

OACD will host it's next board meeting on Thursday August 15th at 1:00 p.m. at the Commission.

National Land and Range Judging Contest Winners Announced

Nearly 700 4-H and FFA students and over 200 coaches from more than 34 states, gathered in Oklahoma for the 68th National Land and Range Judging Contest, May 2, 2019. After two days of practice at sites in the Oklahoma City area, the contest was held near El Reno, Oklahoma at the Cheyenne Arapaho Tribal Headquarters. The Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) and its employees play a significant role annually in the success of the event and Matt Lohr, the Chief of NRCS, was a special guest at the national event.

National championship trophies were awarded at the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum to team and individual winners in each category of competition: land judging, range judging and homesite evaluation. Each category included FFA and 4-H awards.

Chief of USDA NRCS speaks to students about stepping out of comfort zone and into leadership

The soil types and the ranges of Oklahoma have been a challenge and a blessing to many generations of agricultural producers. Matt Lohr, Chief of the United States Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Natural Resources Conservation Service, (NRCS) in speaking to the contestants of the 68th National Land and Range Judging Contest on May 2 at the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum, said that in a lot ways the same can be true for them. They faced challenges during the contest, but now they can turn those challenges into positives for themselves and their communities.

Lohr serves as the 16th Chief of NRCS. As Chief, Lohr provides leadership for NRCS and its mission to support America's farmers, ranchers and forest landowners in their voluntary conservation efforts through a network of more than 3,000 service centers in communities nationwide.

While in Oklahoma, Lohr was in the field for the national competition, visited the Cottonwood Creek Watershed Project, Floodwater Retarding Dam No. 17 with NRCS State Conservationist Gary O'Neill, and traveled to Stephens County to meet with employees at the Duncan field office as well as some producers in the field.

On the evening of the awards he was introduced by Oklahoma Secretary of Agriculture Blayne Arthur and told the packed room that it is a "Great honor to be here. He said, "Congratulations to all of you in the Blue and Gold jackets and the Green jackets. As it was said, I am a proud past National FFA Officer and 4-H Member, and my favorite day in the whole world is when I get a chance to come and hang out and see great young leaders like yourself. So thank you so much for participating."

"...I am a proud past National FFA Officer and 4-H Member, and my favorite day in the whole world is when I get a chance to come and hang out and see great young leaders like yourself."

Emmons named as Regional Director for FPAC

NRCS Oklahoma wants to congratulate Jimmy Emmons of Dewey County, who was selected to serve as the Regional Director for USDA's Farm Production and Conservation (FPAC) for the five state area of Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Kansas and Oklahoma. State Conservationist Gary O'Neill shared the good news in introducing Emmons who was the guest speaker at the 64th Soil Stewardship/Legislative Breakfast in Wagoner. FPAC is the Department's focal point for the nation's farmers and ranchers and other stewards of private agricultural lands and non-industrial private forest lands. FPAC agencies implement programs designed to mitigate the significant risks of farming through crop insurance services, conservation programs and technical assistance, and commodity, lending, and disaster programs.

Oklahoma numbers add up in conservation's favor in 2017 U.S. Census of Agriculture

The 2017 U.S. Census of Agriculture – released by the United States Department of Agriculture's (USDA) National Agricultural Statistics Service (NASS) – showed that in Oklahoma, compared to 2012, there was a 24 percent increase in the number of farms using cover crops, a 51 percent increase in acres using cover crops, and a 29 percent decrease in intensive tillage practices. On a national scale, the report shows that Oklahoma is seventh in the nation for the largest decrease in cropland acreage using conventional tillage practices. O'Neill said, "Reduced tillage and cover crops are two of the primary principles of Soil Health systems. These data trends show that Oklahoma farmers and ranchers are recognizing the benefits from implementing Soil Health Systems on their lands."

NRCS and Adair County CD help develop leaders in 4-H speech contest

On March 5, 2019, Josh Hall and Robert Bagby of NRCS and Ashley Teehee of the Adair County Conservation District went to Maryetta School to judge the 4-H 5th grade speech contest for all of Adair County. Adair County Conservation District and the Stilwell NRCS partner yearly with 4-H and OSU Cooperative Extension at this event to help shape bright young minds in our community and raise awareness of our conservation efforts in the community. Robert and Ashley judged speeches about crafts such as making slime, building birdhouses, and pet grooming. Josh judged speeches about food recipes, such as unicorn shakes, Chex mix, and Better than a boyfriend brownies. The students were brave, entertaining, and informative.

Soil Health Workshop

The Watonga NRCS FO in conjunction with OTCAC, the Blaine County CD, and the Central North Canadian River CD held a Soil Health Workshop and Locally Led Meeting at the Blaine County Fairgrounds on April 16, 2019. Other agencies and partners present were the Black Historical Society, NASS, FSA, and USDA Climate Hub. Speakers included Dr. Carol Crouch, P.J. Martin, Steve Alspach, and Colin Walden with the NRCS, Trista Costa with the FSA, Clay Pope with the USDA Climate Hub, Troy Marshall with NASS, Debi Carnot with OACD and CNCRCO, and Steve House with the BCCD. Topics included soil health on cropland and soil health principles, and grazing land management for soil health. There were 30 people in attendance and the content of the workshop was well received.

And then there was May 2019

Tornadoes and flooding battled it out for Oklahoma's top weather headline during May 2019, with both combatants bringing mayhem and misery to the state. The scope and scale of the weather disasters prompted Gov. Kevin Stitt to declare a State of Emergency for all 77 counties. According to reports from the Oklahoma Department of Emergency Management, at least six fatalities and 118 injuries were attributed to the flooding and severe weather. Flooding was the most widespread and damaging of the weather hazards during May. According to preliminary data from the Oklahoma Mesonet, the statewide average rainfall total was 10.48 inches, 5.66 inches above normal. North central Oklahoma's average of 12.2 inches was 7.84 inches above normal, ranking it as the wettest calendar month on record for that part of the state. The National Weather Service cooperative observer site at Pawnee led the state with 22.52 inches,

A Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) 'National Watershed Benefits' computer model estimates the daily monetary benefits resulting from watershed projects for a specific storm. These benefits are essentially the damages that would have occurred from that storm had the dams not been built. The report detailed over $30 million in monetary benefits resulting from the watershed projects in Oklahoma in May 2019.

Fairview Chamber of Commerce's Luncheon

The Major County Conservation District, NRCS and FSA partnered to participate in the Fairview Chamber of Commerce's Professional, Business & Industry Luncheon on April 23, 2019 in Fairview, OK. There were approximately 200 in attendance and we presented Farm Bill Program Fact Sheets, Soil Health Resources, Garden / Cover Crop Seed, State Cost Share Program Information and other conservation related pamphlets. There were several good conservation conversations including discussion of building Soil Health resulting in follow-up field appointments.

Natural Resources Day

On May the 6th, the Murray County Conservation District held their Natural Resource Day at the Murray County Expo Center. Attending were 190 students from Sulphur and Davis, along with 10 teachers. The presenters were the Sulphur Fire Department, the Pauls Valley NRCS, Oklahoma Blue Thumb, the Oklahoma Conservation Commission, the Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation, the National Fish Hatchery, the OSU Extension service, the Chickasaw National Recreation Area, and the Murray County 4-H.

Conservation District Employees gather information and ideas at statewide training

The Conservation District Employee training, made possible by the Oklahoma Conservation Commission (OCC), the Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS), the Oklahoma Association of Conservation Districts (OACD) and the OACD Employees, included topics such as Oklahoma's state funded locally-led conservation cost-share program, director elections and appointments, basic financial management, soil health and other education resources, surplus and sale of equipment and property, pesticide applicator Continuing Education Unit (CEU) Training and several other items.

NRCS State Conservationist Gary O'Neill, said, "NRCS and Conservation District employees work side-by-side in providing assistance to Oklahoma farmers and ranchers. The more training each of our staffs receive the more efficient and better we are equipped to provide a high-level of customer service. This helps both NRCS and the Conservation Districts achieve our critically important conservation mission."

Youth Fishing Clinic at Northeast Tech Afton Campus

Shirley Hudson and Madison Taylor attended the Youth Fishing Clinic at Northeast Tech Afton Campus on Friday June 7, 2019. This event was a partnership between Northeast Tech, Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation, and the Ottawa County Conservation District to educate youth about local fish and basic fishing practices.

NRCS Oklahoma Listening Sessions

NRCS Oklahoma held listening sessions on April 10 in Shawnee and April 15 in Miami to discuss the 2018 Farm Bill. Participants included NRCS State Conservationist Gary O'Neill, NRCS State Tribal Liaison Dr. Carol Crouch, Risk Management Agency Director James Bellmon and Farm Service Agency State Executive Director Scott Biggs. Other USDA agencies joining the listening sessions included the National Agricultural Statistics Service, Rural Development and Food Nutrition Service. On April 15, NRCS and the Quapaw Nation signed a soil health agreement to promote healthy soil on Quapaw Nation tribal trust land. O'Neill and Chairman John Berrey, Quapaw Nation, signed the document.

Conservation's message carried by many on Conservation Day at the Capitol

"Conservation Day at the Capitol" is an event where conservation district directors, cooperators, and employees are encouraged to share with legislators the important services that conservation districts provide to the community in the area of natural resources conservation. It also provides an opportunity to recognize those who lead conservation's efforts with their passion and their actions throughout Oklahoma.

The Oklahoma Association of Conservation Districts announced Seth Stone, Chandler, and Hunter Jordan, Jet, as the 2019 Mike Thralls Memorial Scholarship award winners. Stone is 1st in his class at Chandler High School and will attend Oklahoma State University in the fall. Jordan is a junior at Oklahoma State University and is majoring in Animal Science.

The Ottawa County Conservation District received the Outstanding Conservation District award. The district works with over 10,000 cooperators to preserve the natural resources of their community. The district is involved in farmer/rancher and youth education in areas such as soil health and feral hog eradication. The district works closely with the farming/ranching community including seven tribal communities of Ottawa County. Ottawa County Conservation District received $2,500 and a plaque. This award is sponsored by the Oklahoma Association of Conservation Districts.

Larry Wright from the Deer Creek Conservation District was presented with the Outstanding Conservation District Director award. Wright raises organic, specialty crops. He works tirelessly to help educate youth, farmers & ranchers, and elected officials about the importance of conservation. Mr. Wright has served on the Deer Creek Conservation District board since 2013. He received a plaque and $1,000. The Outstanding Conservation District Director award is sponsored by the Noble Research Institute and OACD.

Randy Parmley from the Ottawa County Conservation District was awarded the Outstanding Conservation District Cooperator award. Parmley has been a cooperator with the conservation district for 45 years. Parmley utilizes conservation principles including rotational grazing, the fencing off of riparian areas, and limited synthetic herbicides and pesticides on his operation. He received a plaque and a check for $1,000. The Outstanding Cooperator Award is sponsored by The Nature Conservancy and OACD.

Civil Rights Orientation for Pathways Students

Annually Oklahoma NRCS receives students that come to work for us from all across the country. This year we have a total of 22 Pathways students and 2 Natural Resources Career Development Program (NRCDP) students, our farthest traveling to Oklahoma is Judit Trinidad-Rivera from Puerto Rico. The Civil Rights Advisory Committee (CRAC) hosts a picnic so that the students can meet each other, and the committee, and meet the leadership team.

From a pacing exercise to cornhole, the CRAC gave the students the chance to interact with each other while learning teamwork and spending time with their mentors. The orientation served as an opportunity for Gary O'Neill to talk to each student about expectations and opportunities in Oklahoma. It also gave time for Josh Ketch to talk to students about the paperwork needed.

As the CRAC and the leadership team introduced themselves they were able to sit down and enjoy lunch on a nice day out at Boomer Lake (Stillwater Creek 23).

Civil Rights Advisory Committee Corner

Hello fellow Oklahoma NRCS' employees and partners,

My name is Andrea Lane. Some of you might know me, I work at the state office in Stillwater on the Design and Engineering staff as a Civil Engineering Technician. But you may not know that I also serve as the chair for the Civil Rights Advisory Committee (CRAC). Before taking that position, I served as the Federal Women's Program Manager on the committee. I want to update you on some of the work that CRAC is doing across the state. You have probably already heard about the student picnic that we host every year here in Stillwater. Besides attending quarterly meetings at the state office, we also participate in career fairs and classroom visits across the state hoping to find students that want to work for NRCS. The committee also plans and coordinates the civil rights training provided during the winter zone meetings.

Beginning this summer, if not already completed, several members of the committee will be helping the ASTCFO's with civil rights reviews in field offices. Also, in the next few months your zone representatives will be compiling a list of individuals and teams that have exemplified civil rights in their area. The winner will represent Oklahoma in October when the national office calls for nominees for national civil rights award. As the Special Emphasis Program Managers (SEPMs) send out information about their emphasis months I encourage all employees to take a moment in their busy schedule to look over the emails. You never know what interesting facts you might learn.

As we head into the last quarter of this fiscal year, I encourage everyone to learn who their CRAC representatives and SEPMs are and engage in discussion with them. You can find a list of the CRAC members on the SharePoint site, if you are unsure of who your reps are. Don't forget to upload your outreach reports to the SharePoint site so they may be added to the zone reports. I also want to encourage other employees to apply for vacancies as they come open on the CRAC. We just announced the Western Zone Representative that will be filled soon. Lastly, take time to care for yourselves. As the end of the year approaches deadlines loom, but we all need to take time to breathe and pace ourselves so that we don't get burnt out. If you ever have any questions or issues come up, please do not hesitate to reach out to one of your CRAC members for assistance.

Sincerely,
Andrea Lane
